1	Lots of information exchanged	6/2/2021 8:35 AM
2	NA	5/19/2021 10:01 AM
3	It's been challenging because our Head Start is currently virtual, and we're not sure when we'll be in person again. Our other challenge in Washington County is that not many families that we serve have reliable internet access. So even if we would share the resources online, it would be difficult for them to view and / or use them.	11/16/2020 8:42 AM
4	Have not had the opportunity to use them yet, but foresee needing them in the near future.	10/6/2020 1:42 PM
5	During COVID considering our program is doing telehealth it is hard not being able to be in person to hand out materials, etc. I'm excited for when we switch back to in person and having this materials readily available.	9/29/2020 9:41 AM

9	I have not had the chance to use the material as of yet.	9/22/2020 9:06 AM
10	We do not see the parents on a regular basis to introduce the information to them due to COVID-19. In another instance I don't feel comfortable talking about to adults about what goes on their own house.	9/21/2020 1:47 PM
11	I haven't got a chance to used them yet. But my goal is to start using the Breathe" materials.	9/21/2020 1:46 PM

21	Our kids are doing virtual Learning . its difficult to do it. right now.	9/11/2020 2:04 PM
22	I feel that the training - materials and videos - should have been sent to parents rather than used as a training for teaching teams. I feel that our parents are affronted when my teaching team tries to talk with them about quitting smoking. Our parents might feel that we are not the experts who they will/would listen to regarding quitting smoking.	9/11/2020 1:13 PM
23	After the training we began working from home due to COVID-19. Access to materials via internet to share links during or after phone appointments with clients would be helpful. I have given verbal tips that I learned during the training. As well as the 1-800 phone line.	4/24/2020 10:16 AM

64	Our staff are using the materials. I don't directly teach a child class or parenting class, but our frontline staff use them.	2/18/2020 11:08 AM
65	I like having the information as both a visual reminder and an aid for those who do want to quit/reduce their tobacco habit.	2/18/2020 9:17 AM
66	Made Parents aware of all the info which I think they hear all the time but have become numb to the advice. I am a smoker and I have shared the info and starting to take the steps in quitting. I share my story also and I believe Parents are listening and trying to make steps in quitting or at least do it away from children.	2/18/2020 9:13 AM

70	Easy tool to use and great activities for both parents and children. Parents and children both receptive to the activities	2/13/2020 12:29 PM
71	I know our home visitors have been using this information for there parents and providing information to them in their homes.	2/11/2020 9:53 AM
72	Not currently part of the curriculum I teach.	2/11/2020 9:34 AM
73	We never got them for our classroom to use.	2/10/2020 3:42 PM
74	I have sent parent and child materials home and asked if families found the information helpful or not. I would like to incorporate the videos but just haven't decided when it would be appropriate.	2/10/2020 3:39 PM
75	Lots	2/10/2020 3:20 PM
76	Some of the information shared was not accurate. I will not pass along info that is inaccurate or false. Telling people there is fiberglass in chewing tobacco, dip, and snuf is a falsehood, and to give out that kind of infor not at all professional.	2/10/2020 3:07 PM
77	We have implemented the Breathe curriculum with our Head Start parent meetings. We have had only one parent meeting since the training. Our challenge is getting the parents to come to the parent meetings.	2/10/2020 3:02 PM
78	Prior to the training, I did not have materials to share with parents about smoking and the health effects it has on their children. But now, with the help of the Home Based Teachers, we will be able to utilize the materials.	2/7/2020 3:24 PM
79	The material seems very helpful. I have been slow to share it with families because I don't want to push them away by being too abrupt with it.	2/6/2020 3:33 PM
80	.	2/6/2020 12:40 PM
81	None. Waiting to use at next home visits	1/20/2020 3:45 PM
