1	COVID	5/10/2021 11:26 AM
2	Covid, Covid, Covid. A lot of the sites are extremely busy with other tasks related to covid, so it is hard for us to get trainings scheduled during this time.	5/10/2021 10:45 AM
3	Not being able to do programs in person	5/10/2021 9:38 AM
4	Being new to the position in the midst of a pandemic is challenging. It's challenging to establish connections virtually	5/7/2021 3:55 PM
5	Communication with the director.	5/7/2021 2:36 PM
6	Staff changes at our organization and losing touch with Head Start and alternative organizations	5/7/2021 1:30 PM
7	Educating staff on utilizing materials in the virtual world.	5/7/2021 12:04 PM
8	Not being able to train in person	5/4/2021 4:57 PM
9	Hosting things in person and connecting with families.	5/4/2021 2:25 PM
10	Them not being open/having guests or events.	5/4/2021 2:10 PM
11	In addition to the typical COVID-related issues, I was a new hire and had to juggle all of my other indicators and try to figure out what had already been done and what had yet to be done. I have been trying to schedule a training, but so far nobody is willing to do so due to restrictions or lack of time. Still working with a few orgs.	5/4/2021 1:47 PM
12	Getting Staff of H.S. to follow up on/with Breathe Curriculum	5/4/2021 1:11 PM
13	COVID and having Face-to Face	5/4/2021 1:10 PM
14	With all the shifts in personnel, virtual learning, facilities being closed, etc. It's been challenging finding good points of contact and getting feedback from reaching out via phone and email.	5/4/2021 1:06 PM
15	It was a little bit long, we also struggled with time as we went over the time for about 20 minutes.	5/4/2021 1:02 PM
16	Getting time to get on the schedule for refresher training...	5/3/2021 11:37 AM
17	The length of time for the training and connecting with Head Start staff to schedule a training.	4/29/2021 10:16 AM
18	Introducing a new idea to a school not in session is the hardest thing. They are not worried about extra things to teach when they are trying to teach basics in a foreign way	4/28/2021 1:42 PM
19	Our local Head Start did not want an in-person training because of COVID and was not interested in the virtual training for this second year of our grant. We did not want to continue asking/bugging them about it, as we did not want to discourage them from letting us do the trainings in the future. We realize that there were a lot of issues this year due to COVID and staffing, so while we really wanted to conduct a training, we had to respect their wishes. We tried to keep the Breathe information present by emailing them the monthly newsletter to share with their staff and families. We were lucky to at least provide the training to an alternate partner in year 2 of the grant. In year one we did a training with Head Start as well as an alternate partner, so for the 2 year grant we were able to complete at least 3 trainings, which we were happy with!	4/28/2021 11:05 AM

22	We have been fortunate that we were able to provide in-person and virtual trainings. The classroom activities are being used and implemented. There have not been a lot of opportunities for the adult/parent activities.	4/27/2021 2:36 PM
23	I just think, like everything else, it was how the pandemic affected operations and how everything was moved from in-person to virtual.	4/27/2021 2:29 PM
24	In previous years it was an easy sell for me to come in and present to staff. This year no matter how much I offered my services I was only able to provide a presentation to a few staff members at one Center.	4/27/2021 12:50 PM
25	The use of material was not a priority. Said the time is not available to focus on this topic.	4/27/2021 12:04 PM

It will also be a great resource to recruit new partners. 5	I wish there was an agreement with state that required Head Starts to complete this training. While some Head Start sites are grateful for this opportunity it seems others like ours, do not feel the same. We honestly find that the alternate sites seem to be more excited about the opportunity.	4/28/2021 11:05 AM
